

MAJIC® NO HUNTING PURPLEFEATURES

- Used to mark No Trespassing

DESCRIPTION & USES

Majic No Hunting Purple Paint can save landowners time and expense in controlling hunter access to their land. In recognition of the task facing landowners in posting their property, the process was simplified through a law that has been passed by many states. In addition to traditional posting of signs, landowners can post the same legal message by placing an identifying purple paint mark on posts or trees around the area to be posted.
